

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

JASON WIMBERLY,

Plaintiff,

-v.-

EXPERIAN INFORMATION
SOLUTIONS, INC.,

Defendant.

18 Civ. 6058 (KPF)

ORDER

KATHERINE POLK FAILLA, District Judge:

On February 1, 2020, the Court received a series of submissions from Plaintiff. (Dkt. #66-69). Plaintiff's submissions are primarily comprised of three things: (i) a motion to seal certain documents containing sensitive medical information; (ii) a motion for expedited discovery; and (iii) a request for an extension to file his motion for leave to amend his operative complaint. On February 4, 2020, the Court, having not received a memorandum of law supporting any of the three motions, responded to Plaintiff's submissions with an Order denying without prejudice his motion to seal; denying his motion for expedited discovery; and granting his request for an extension. (Dkt. #70).

Later on February 4, however, the Court received in the mail an unredacted hard copy of Plaintiff's memorandum, along with exhibits. Given the circumstances and Plaintiff's pro se status, the Court now proceeds as follows: first, the Court will redact the portions of Plaintiff's memorandum that require redaction and docket the memorandum and exhibits appropriately; second, the Court will provide Defendant with a copy of Plaintiff's sealed, unredacted memorandum, and having done so ORDERS Defendant to respond to Plaintiff's combined motion no later than February 19, 2020; and third, the Court ORDERS that its prior Order at docket entry 70 be withdrawn. After the Court has received Defendant's responding briefing, the Court will issue a fully considered decision on Plaintiff's motion.

SO ORDERED.
